Subject: Millennium Quay 'Enough is Enough' - open letter

Dear Sir

I am the Chairman of Millennium Quay Freehold Limited and Millennium Quay (A,B,C,D,E,F and G) Management Limited and I am also a lessee at Millennium Quay. Your open letter dated 21st July has been brought to our attention.

We have been unable to identify any lessee of Millennium Quay on your list of signatories.

Millennium Quay is a development of 588 properties and we have been extremely active in the day to day management of our homes for the last 20 years. We are in control of the assessment of the External Walling System with appropriately qualified and insured professionals.

The contents of your letter dated 21st July are not reflective of any of the issues you suggest in relation to Millennium Quay. Nor are they reflective of the service we receive from Rendall and Rittner.

I would be grateful if you would remove our development from your correspondence.

Yours faithfully

Stephen Lang
